miralty.—(1st August, 1849.) 96.

Whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King William the Third, intituled: "An Act for the more effectual suppression of Piracy," it is enacted that all Piracies, Felonies, and Robberies committed on the sea, or in any haven, river, creek or place where the Admiral or Admirals have power, authority, or jurisdiction, may be examined, enquired of, tried, heard, and determined, and adjudged in any place at sea, or upon the land in any of His Majesty's islands, plantations, colonies, dominions, forts or factories, to be appointed for that purpose by the King's Commission, in the manner therein directed, and according to the civil law and the method and rules of the Admiralty; and whereas by an Act passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled: "An Act for the speedy Trial of Offences committed in distant parts upon the Sea," it is enacted, that all Treasons, Piracies, Felonies, Robberies, Murders, Conspiracies, and other offences of what nature or kind soever committed upon the sea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place where the Admiral or Admirals have power, authority, or jurisdiction, may be enquired of, tried, heard, determined, and adjudged, according to the common course of the Laws of this Realm, used for Offences committed upon the Land within this Realm and not otherwise, in any of His Majesty's islands, plantations, colonies, dominions, forts and factories, under and by virtue of the King's Commission or Commissions, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to be directed to Commissioners in the manner and with the powers and authorities therein provided.

And whereas it is expedient to make further and better provisions for the Apprehension, Custody, and Trial, in Her Majesty's islands, plantations, colonies, dominions, forts and factories, of persons charged with the commission of such offences on the sea, or in any such haven, river, creek, or place as aforesaid—be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that if any person within any colony shall be charged with the commission of any treason, piracy, felony, robbery, murder, conspiracy, or other offence of what nature or kind soever committed upon the sea, or in any such haven, river, creek or place, where the Admiral or Admirals have power, authority, or jurisdiction; or if any person charged with the commission of any such offence upon the sea, or in any such haven, river, creek or place, shall be brought for trial to any colony, then, and in every such case, all Magistrates, Justices of the Peace, Public Prosecutors, Juries, Judges, Courts, Public Officers, and other persons in such colony, shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction and authorities for inquiring of, trying, hearing, determining, and adjudging such offences; and they are hereby respectively authorized, empowered, and required to institute and carry on all such proceedings for the bringing of such person so charged as aforesaid to trial, and for and auxiliary to and consequent upon the trial of any such person for such offence wherewith he may be charged as aforesaid, as by the law of such colony would and ought to have been had and exercised or instituted and carried on by them respectively, if such offence had been committed and such person had been charged with having committed the same upon any waters situate within the limits of any such colony, and within the limits of the local jurisdiction of the Courts of Criminal Justice of such Colony.

II.—Provided always, and be it enacted, that if any person shall be convicted before any such Court of any such offence, such person so convicted shall be subject and liable to and shall suffer all such and the same pains, penalties and forfeitures as by any law or laws now in force, persons convicted of the same respectively would be subject and liable to in case such offence had been committed, and were inquired of, tried, heard, determined, and adjudged in England any law, statute, or usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

III.—And be it enacted that where any person shall die in any colony of any stroke, poisoning or hurt, such person having been feloniously stricken, poisoned, or hurt upon the sea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place, where the admiral or admirals have power, authority, or jurisdiction, or at any place out of such colony, every offence committed in respect of any such case, whether the same shall amount to the offence of murder, or of manslaughter, or of being an accessory before the fact to murder, or after the fact, to murder or manslaughter, may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, determined, and punished, in such colony, in the same manner, in all respects, as if such offence had been wholly committed in that colony, and that if any person in any colony shall be charged with any such offence as aforesaid, in respect of the death of any person who having been feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt shall have died of such stroke, poisoning or hurt upon the sea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place, where the admiral or admirals have power, authority, or jurisdiction, such offence shall be held for the purposes of this act to have been wholly committed upon the sea.

5 Geo. II, An Act for the more easy recovery of debts in His Majesty's
Cap. 7. Plantations and Colonies in America.—(Passed in 1732.)

Whereas His Majesty's subjects trading to the British plantations in America lie under great difficulties for want of more easy methods of proving, recovering, and levying of debts due to them than are now used in some of the said plantations; and whereas it will tend very much to the retrieving of the credit formerly given by the trading subjects of Great Britain to the natives and inhabitants of the said plantations, and to the advancing of the trade of this kingdom thither, if such inconveniences were remedied; may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the lords spiritual and temporal and Commons, in this present parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the twenty-ninth day of September, which shall be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, in any action or suit then depending, or thereafter to be brought in any Court of Law or Equity in any of the said plantations, for or relating to any debt or account wherein any person residing in Great Britain shall be a party, it shall and may be lawful to and for the plaintiff or defendant, and also to and for any witness to be examined or made use of in such action or suit to verify or prove any matter or thing by affidavit or affidavits in writing upon oath, or in case the person making such affidavit be one of the people called Quakers, then upon his or her solemn affirmation made before any Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of the city, borough, or town corporate in Great Britain, where or near to which the person making such affidavit or affirmation shall reside, and certified, and transmitted under the Common Seal of such City, borough or town corporate, or the seal of the office of such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, which oath and solemn affirmation every such Mayor and Chief Magistrate shall be, and is hereby authorized and empowered to administer—and every affidavit or affirmation so made, certified, and transmitted, shall, in all such actions and suits, be allowed to be of the same force and effect as if the person or persons making the same upon oath, or solemn affirmation, as aforesaid, had appeared, and sworn or affirmed the matters contained in such affidavit or affirmation, viva voce, in open Court, or upon a Commission issued for the examination of witnesses of any party in such action or suit respectively: provided that in every such affidavit and affirmation there shall be expressed the addition of the party making such affidavit or affirmation, and the particular place of his or her abode.

Sec. 2.—And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in all suits now depending, or hereafter, to be brought in any Court of Law or Equity, by or on behalf of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, in any of the said plantations, for or relating to any debt or account that His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, shall and may prove his and their debts, and accounts, and examine his or their witness or witnesses, by affidavit or affirmation, in like manner as any subject or subjects, is, or are empowered, or may do by this present Act.

Sec. 3.—Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, that if any person making such affidavit upon oath, or solemn affirmation, as aforesaid, shall be guilty of falsely and wilfully swearing or affirming any matter or thing in such affidavit or affirmation, which, if the same had been sworn upon an examination in the usual form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, every person so offending being thereof lawfully convicted, shall incur the same penalties and forfeitures, as by the Laws and Statutes of this realm, are provided against persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury in like manner as real estates are by the law of England, liable to the satisfaction of debts due by bond or other specialty, and shall be subject to the like remedies, proceedings and process in any Court of Law and Equity, in any of the said plantations respectively, for seizing, extending, selling, or disposing of any such houses, lands, negroes, and other hereditaments and real estates, towards the satisfaction of such debts, duties, and demands, and in like manner, as personal estates in any of the said plantations respectively, are seized, extended, sold, or disposed of for the satisfaction of debts.

OFFENDERS ESCAPING FROM COLONIES.

An Act for the apprehension of certain offenders.—(28th July 6 and 7 1843.)
Vic., Cap. 34.

Whereas, it is expedient to make more effectual provision for the apprehension and trial of offenders against the laws, who may be in other parts of Her Majesty's dominions than those in which their offences were committed: Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same: That from and after the passing of this Act, if any person charged with having committed any offence such as is hereinafter mentioned, against the laws of any part of Her Majesty's Dominions not being part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and against whom a warrant shall have been issued for such offence, by any person having lawful authority to issue the same within that part of Her Majesty's dominions where such offence shall have been committed, shall be in any place within the said United Kingdom, it shall be lawful, in Great Britain for one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and in Ireland, for the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to endorse his name on such warrant, which warrant so endorsed shall be a sufficient authority to the person or persons bringing such warrant, and to all persons to whom such warrant was originally directed, and also to all constables and other peace officers in that part of the United Kingdom where the said warrant shall be so endorsed, to execute the said warrant, by apprehending the person against whom such warrant is directed, and to convey the said person before a Justice of the Peace for the County or other Jurisdiction in which the supposed offender shall be apprehended, or in Scotland, either before such Justice of the Peace, or before the Sheriff's Deputy or Substitute.

Offenders in the Colonies escaping into the United Kingdom may be there apprehended

Sec. 2.—And to remedy the like failure of Justice, by the escape of persons charged with having committed offences into those parts of Her Majesty's Dominions which do not form part of the said United Kingdom, be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any person charged with having committed any offence, such as is hereinafter mentioned, in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions whether or not within the said United Kingdom, and against whom a warrant shall be issued by any person or persons having lawful authority to issue the same, shall be in any other part of Her Majesty's Dominions not forming part of the said United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for the Chief Justice or any other Judge of Her Majesty's Superior Court of Law within that other part of Her Majesty's Dominions where such person shall be, to endorse his name on such warrant, which warrant so endorsed shall be a sufficient authority to the person or persons bringing such warrant, and also to all persons to whom such warrant was originally directed, and also to all peace officers of the place where the warrant shall be so endorsed, to execute the same within the jurisdiction of the person by whom it shall be so endorsed, by apprehending the person against whom such warrant is directed, and to convey him before a magistrate or other person having authority to examine and commit offenders for trial in that part of Her Majesty's Dominions.

Offender may be committed to gaol until he can be sent back to the place where the offence was committed.

Information of Commitment to be given.

Sec. 3.—And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person duly authorized to examine and commit offenders for trial, before whom any such supposed offender shall be brought as aforesaid, upon such evidence of criminality as would justify his committal if the offence had been committed in that part of Her Majesty's Dominions, to commit such supposed offender to prison, there to remain until he can be sent back, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to that part of Her Majesty's Dominions in which he is charged with having committed such offence: and immediately upon the committal of such person, information thereof in writing under the hand of the committing Magistrate accompanied by a copy of the said warrant, shall be given, in Great Britain, to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, and in any other part of Her Majesty's Dominions, to the Governor or Acting Governor.

Copies of depositions may be given as evidence.

Sec. 4.—Provided always, and be it enacted, that in every such case, copies of the depositions upon which the original warrant was granted certified under the hand of the person or persons issuing such warrant and attested upon the oath of the party producing them to be true copies of the original depositions, may be received in evidence of the criminality of the person so apprehended.

Offenders apprehended to be sent to the place where the offence was committed.

Sec. 5.—And be it enacted that it shall be lawful, in Great Britain, for any one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Ireland for the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, and in any other part of Her Majesty's Dominions for the Governor or Acting Governor, by warrant under his hand and seal, to order any person who shall have been so apprehended, and committed to gaol to be delivered into the custody of some person or persons, to be named in the said warrant, for the purpose of being conveyed into that part of Her Majesty's Dominions in which he is charged with having committed the offence, and being delivered into the custody of the proper authorities, there to be dealt with in due course of law, as if he had been there apprehended and to order that the person so committed to gaol be so conveyed accordingly: and if the said person, after he shall have been so apprehended, shall escape out of any custody to which he shall have been committed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to retake such person in the same manner as any person accused of any crime against the laws of that part of Her Majesty's dominions may be retaken upon an escape.

Sec. 6.—And be it enacted, that where any person who shall have been committed to gaol under this act shall not be conveyed out of that part of Her Majesty's Dominions, in which he shall have been so committed to gaol within two calendar months after such committal, over and above the time actually required to convey the prisoner from the gaol to which he was committed by the readiest way out of that part of Her Majesty's Dominions, it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Judges, in that part of Her Majesty's Dominions, in which such supposed offender shall be in custody upon application made to him or them, by or on behalf of the person so committed, and upon proof made to him or them that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in Great Britain or in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, or to the Governor, or Acting Governor, in any other part of Her Majesty's Dominions, to order the person so committed to be discharged out of custody, unless sufficient cause shall be shewn to such judge or judges why such discharge ought not to be ordered.

If not sent within two months after committal may apply to be discharged.

Sec. 7.—And be it enacted, that in case any person apprehended under this Act shall not be indicted for the offence for which he shall have been so apprehended within the period of six calendar months after his arrival in that part of Her Majesty's Dominions, in which he is charged to have committed the offence, or, if upon his trial he shall be acquitted, it shall be lawful in Great Britain for one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Ireland, for the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and for the Governor, or Acting Governor, in any other part of Her Majesty's Dominions, if he shall think fit, upon the request of the person so apprehended, to cause such person to be sent back, free of cost to such person, and with as little delay as possible, to that part of Her Majesty's Dominions, in which he shall have been so apprehended.

Persons apprehended if not indicted within six months or if not convicted may be sent back.

Sec. 8.—And be it enacted, that the Court before which any person apprehended under this Act shall be prosecuted or tried within the said United Kingdom may order, if it shall think fit, that the expenses of apprehending and removing the prisoner from any part of Her Majesty's Dominions, not within the said United Kingdom, shall be repaid to the person defraying the same by the Treasurer of the County, or other Jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or by the Sheriff's Deputy or substitute of the County in Scotland, in which the offence is charged to have been committed, the amount of such expenses being previously ascertained by an account thereof verified by production of proper vouchers before two Justices of the Peace of such County, or other Jurisdiction; which last mentioned Justices shall examine into the correctness of the said account, and shall allow the same or such part thereof as shall to them appear just and reasonable, under their hands and seals: and every Treasurer, or Sheriff, Deputy, or Substitute, who shall pay the amount so ascertained, shall be allowed such payment in his accounts respecting the business of such County or other Jurisdiction.

Proof of the signature of the person issuing the original warrant.

Sec. 9.—Provided always, and be it enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person to endorse his name on any such warrant for the purpose of authorizing the apprehension of any person under this Act, until it shall have been proved to him, upon oath or by affidavit, that the seal or signature upon the same is the seal or signature of the person having lawful authority to issue such warrant, whose seal or signature the same purports to be.

Warrant not to be endorsed except in cases of Treason, Felony, &c.

Sec. 10.—Provided also, and be it enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person to endorse his name upon any such warrant, for the purpose of authorizing the apprehension of any person under this Act, unless it shall appear upon the face of the said warrant that the offence which the person, for whose apprehension the said warrant has been issued, is charged to have committed, is such, that if committed within that part of Her Majesty's Dominions where the warrant is so endorsed, it would have amounted in law to a treason or some felony, such as the Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Sessions assembled have not authority to try in England, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled, an act to define the jurisdiction of Justices in General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or unless the depositions appear sufficient to warrant the committal of such person for trial.

Act may be amended.

Sec. 11.—And be it enacted, that this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.
